THE ANNUAL FESTIVAL OF TRADES, ARTS AND CRAFTS

PRESENTED BY THE TRI-STATE
CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

30 MARCH 2008 10:00AM - 3:00PM

Food, drinks, vendors, activities for the kids, crafts, local businesses, entertainment, good, services and much more! Spread the word to friends, family and neighbors as we strive to make this year's Festival of Trade, Arts & Crafts the biggest it has ever been.

All businesses interested in participating, please log onto the Chamber website at www.tristatechamber.com for the registration form and details. A great way to leverage your business, exposure your service and product to the community and network with other local businesses. Sign up today!

SHOW YOUR MARCH ISSUE NEWSLETTER AT THE TRI-STATE CHAMBER BOOTH DURING THE EVENT AND RECEIVE A FREE DRINK ALONG WITH YOUR FREE POPCORN!

"We definitely recommend you to participate. We received over twenty leads and most of them turned into clients. It's a fun time, great people and the exposure is fantastic."

- Matt Devino from Rose Hill Kitchens, son of owners Mike and Betsy Devino

Business Highlights

BLACK FOREST BAKERY AND CAFÉ

On Route 44 in Canaan, CT across from Stop & Shop. Known in town for their delicious baked goods, Black Forest Bakery and Café is also open daily, 6am - 5pm, for breakfast and lunch. All bread is made in-house and on-site. Take-out is also available upon request. Make sure to stop by and grab some tasty treats!

OWENS CHIROPRACTIC PHYSICIANS

Located in Lakeville, CT, Dr. Luke Piretti and his staff combine the skill and expertise that spans the entire chiropractic wellness spectrum from spinal care to vitamin therapy.
