BUSINESS SPOTLIGHT

CRESCENDO, INC.

Lakeville, CT

860-596-4019

www.crescendoberkshires.org

Crescendo's mission is to give to listeners and performers an alive experience of classical music. In part this is achieved by cultivating a repertoire that is not usually heard in this region: musical gems of Early Music as well as 20th century and contemporary works. As its name indicates, Crescendo serves the growth and intensification of the musical experience. Interactive performances, lectures and workshops and a historically informed rehearsal style make Crescendo into a unique organization, in which instruction and inspiration go hand in hand. A non for profit organization, Crescendo brings fine sacred and secular choral and instrumental music to the Northwest corner communities of Connecticut, Massachusetts and New York.

A Special Thanks

A special thank you to Sandy Gomez for organizing and taking care of our Hometown Holidays, including the Buy Local campaign this past December/January. And everyone who contributed and or made donations. Because of your generosity the Chamber was able to make this all happen.

We would also like to thank everyone who contributed and donated to our Adopt-a-Tree program in December. Without the donations the Chamber would not be able to continue this program. And a special thank you to Eric Mendelsohn from Salisbury Gardens for donating his time with putting up and taking down the trees. Also, thank you to Chris Kowalski, from C & M Electric for taking care of all the electrical needs.

AND A BIG THANKS to this year's sponsors of the Trade, Arts & Crafts Festival this past March:
Adams Seamless
Geer Corporation
Founders Insurance Group
Lakeville Journal Company
Mountainside
Rooney Design Group
Salisbury Bank & Trust Co.
